CONVENTION TOMORROW

Many G. A. R. Veterans to Register as Delegates-Prominent Speakers on Program.

Scores of veterans are expected to remain in the city to attend the conference of the National Defense League, which opens at the New Willard Hotel at II o'clock tomorrow morning. The local office of the league yesterday invited all Washingtonians, and particularly the nembers of the three trade bodies, to be present.

The delegates will be welcomed to the city at the opening session by P. T.

Moran, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Representative Thomas S.
Crago, of Pennsylvania, will preside.
Col. David J. Palmer retiring commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will speak.

A statement issued by the league yesterday states that "the conference will be a gathering of representative veterans d citizens, who will consider what easures must be taken to put the United States in a military and naval position where it can successfully main-tain its honor, dignity, territory and inerests throughout the world."

Among the speakers at the sessions will be Col. David J. Palmer, Representative Crago, Representative L. C. Dyer, of St. Louis, commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War Veterans; Gen. H. Oden Lake, commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy Union: Senator Robert F ussard, of Louisiana; Perry Belm John Temple Graves, Gov. Emn O'Neill, Simon Wolf, Col John McElroy editor of the National Tribune; Dr. Clarence J. Owens, of the United States Commission on Rural Credits; Judge James H. Blount, Arthur H. Dadman, secretary of the Navy League; Prof. William Libbey, president of the National Rifle Association, Senor Dr. Don Eusebio A. Morales, Minister from Panama, and

Tuesday will be "Navy Day" at the conference. John Callin O'Laughlin will preside. A "National Defense Luncheon" vill be given at 1 o'clock at the New Willard at which John Temple Graves

These, according to the German acring the counts, have been repulsed, but it is evident Russia, for the time at least, has been relieved from the tremendous German pressure to which she has been subjected for the last six months. This is no doubt due to two important causes.

First: The withdrawal of a large force Second: The withdrawal of a strong contingent of the Teutonic armies to assist in the concerted attempt to sweep through Serbia to the Daranelles.

Military critics here believe it possible that the Germans may be preparing for some great new stroke, having failed to capture Dvinsk or reach Minsk. But the concerted attempt to sweep through Serbia to the Daranelles.
